As soon as you get your first glimpse of this beautifully restored and historically significant Italian villa, you'll immediately feel transported to a time long since forgotten. Brimming with rich history, this hidden gem is believed to be over 1200 years old, and underwent an extensive restoration with two brilliant architects and local artisans who specialise in the authentic restoration of Umbrian houses. The result is an authentically Umbrian villa with all the modern conveniences you could dream of, including a large contemporary kitchen, en-suite bathrooms added to the original bedrooms, and a large pool positioned in the garden. Exposed stone, beamed ceilings, and an abundance of fireplaces create a warm ambiance that is perfectly complimented by the stunning grounds, gorgeous gardens, and vast valley views. Prepare a traditional Italian meal for your guests in the indoor formal dining room or stunning outdoor al fresco dining area. After dinner, enjoy a glass of wine on your terrace overlooking the countryside or in your charming courtyard. Whether hosting events of up to 25 people or keeping Villa Campo

Verde as your home away from home, the villa is a place of activity, creativity, and as a tranquil escape from the faced-paced world beyond the villa's grounds. Just over an hour north of Rome, near Spoleto, experience the warmth and authenticity of Umbrian hospitality at Villa Campo Verde – a true Italian treasure.
